Vendor Agreement

Bailey Day is an annual fundraiser for the Platte Canyon Area Chamber of Commerce, a non-profit organization, herein referred to as "Management." Merchandise, service, food, non-profit and other vendors are herein referred to as "Vendors."

Vendor applications

- Vendor applications will be accepted in the order they are received, and space will be reserved in that order. Management reserves the right to reject any application and cannot be responsible for duplicated vendor services.
- Applications must include payment to successfully reserve space.
- Multiple spaces may be reserved.
- Food vendors with trailers are required to purchase a minimum of 2 spaces.
- All Vendors must submit a signed application and agreement, plus fees, to be received by Management, by May 21, 2021 and are non-refundable.
- Late applications, if space is available, applications will be accepted until June 1, 2021 for a booth fee of $200.

- If you submit your application and there are no spaces available, you can choose to be placed on a waiting list and called in order received as space becomes available.
- We will try to accommodate booth placement requests to the best of our ability, on a first come, first served basis.

Set-up/Take-down

- Vendor areas will be open for set-up on Friday, June 18 from 6-9 p.m.
- If you would like to set-up Friday night, please contact Jack Hansell or Sheila RiceWatkins to identify the vendor booth location.
- All vendors will receive a set-up time with their vendor packet, with assigned load in times. Please promptly arrive for your set-up time, as these times are staggered to limit Main Street congestion.
- When you check in, you will be told the area of your booth, and it is not to be altered.
- Vendors must empty their cars in their booth space and immediately MOVE vehicles to the vendor parking lot. You may then return to set-up your booth.
- A second person is recommended to stay with the booth. All vehicles must be off Main St. by Saturday 9 a.m.
- Cars will not be allowed on Main Street until after the close of the event at 8pm.
- Designated egress areas will be available to load out according to zones.
- Vendors will be placed according to preferred ZONE selection subject to availability. Each zone has a specific time commitment in which your booth MUST remain open.
