October 5, 2022

It is with respect for our community that we, the Clear Creek County Sheriff's Office inform you of our cooperation and collaboration with the Clear Creek County Commissioners in the research of a development of a Crisis Response Team for our county. We understand that there is a multitude of information pertaining to the June 2022 incident. This incident has been a tragedy for everyone. It is our intention to maintain the integrity and transparency of the investigation, and by doing that, we must be impartial. With that, our obligation is and was to turn the investigation to an independent outside agency, the CBI (Colorado Bureau of Investigation). In turn, the CBI gives its investigation to the DA (District Attorney). It is my understanding that after review, the DA will decide what further action is appropriate, whether to issue a report, present the case to a grand jury or further investigation. While this matter is pending with the CBI and DA, it is not appropriate for me to comment about specifics because the investigation and next steps are being handled by CBI and the DA. My office will continue to cooperate in any way we can.

Rick Albers, Sheriff
