Hidden Links: Exploring Jewish Identity ? The Work of Yona Verwer and Cynthia Beth Rubin

Artists and collaborators, Cynthia Beth Rubin and Yona Verwer are exhibiting works created together and separately, demonstrating how very different paths led each artist to an exploration of Jewish history and heritage that naturally culminated in a collaborative works. Working together as interpreters of history and heritage as they, photograph, document, represent, and weave together the stories of the past and the present.

Their newest collaborative work incorporates the innovative use of Augmented Reality. For more information, go to: <http://history-heritage-lowereastside.blogspot.com>

Tails of the Painted Cats - exhibit

"TAILS OF THE PAINTED CATS" ON DISPLAY AT MAIN STREET GALLERY IN EVERGREEN

Opening Reception

Friday, July 31

5-8 p.m.

Come to Evergreen for a purr-r-r-fect day in the cool mountain air!

Main Street Gallery in Evergreen, has the pleasure of displaying the Cat Care Society's "Tails of the Painted Cats 2015" featuring 23 one-of-a-kind fiberglass cats, expertly painted by accomplished local artists.

As in past years, all but one cat will be available for auction – both online and at the gala – with a special, featured cat that can be purchased by raffle only. This year's raffle cat, Dale Cat-Huly, was created by artist Carla Pawlewicz. To view all the 2015 painted cats and participate in advance bidding, visit: bidonacat.blogspot.com

The Cat Care Society (CCS) annual benefit, Tails of the Painted Cats (TOPC), returns for its fifth consecutive year to raise funds for the shelter's homeless cats and community outreach programs. Auction of the painted cats occurs at the Gala Dinner & Auction on October 10, 2015, at Pinehurst Country Club. CBS4 Weather Anchor, Ed Greene, returns this year as Master of Ceremonies, joined by former-Mayor of Cherry Hills Village, Doug Tisdale, as auctioneer. Renowned Colorado plein-air and studio landscape artist, Cheryl St. John, served as jurist for this year's "Tails of the Painted Cats."

The cats will be on Display from July 31 - Aug 26, 2015

Aug 26 Evergreen Lake Summer Concert Series

Evergreen Lake, the centerpiece of this mountain community, is home to a free concert series on Wednesday nights throughout the summer. The open-air concerts, with the rustic log-hewn Lake House as a backdrop, run from 5-10 pm every other week, featuring a variety of music from local students to rock to jazz.

Families and friends come to the Lake bearing picnic baskets, foldable chairs and blankets, or buy food and drink from a number of local vendors, while enjoying the music and watching the sun set.

The concerts are put on by Evergreen Lake Presents.

Taking Control over Stress – October 7th

Stress affects our quality of life, our relationships, our work and our overall physical health. Take control over the stress in your life by identifying the 6 core influencers of stress and learn techniques to transform it from energy that works against you to energy that works for you.

Time Management and Balance – October 14th

Are you at the mercy of time or do you make time work for you? We are all given 24 hours per day. Where we differ is how we view and use that time. Learn to declutter your office and mind, deal with procrastination and identify triggers that pull you off course.

High Energy Relationships – October 21st

Relationships are an integral part of our lives, and yet many people go through life without a clear picture of what a good or healthy relationship looks and feels like. Evaluate key relationships in your work and personal life and develop strategies for nurturing and/or changing them. Learn how effective communication and emotional intelligence play a role in developing high energy relationships and conflict management.

Creating a Personalized Wellness Plan – October 28th

Identify areas in your life you would like to create greater health and Wellness. Discover what is getting in the way of feeling your best by understanding your beliefs, values and priorities around health wellness. Walk away with an action plan to start experiencing greater wellbeing.

Your Wellbeing Partner – Jennifer Miller

Jennifer's mission is to empower everyone to live a life they desire and deserve. As a Certified Professional Wellbeing Coach and Exercise Physiologist, Jennifer is passionate about the connection between the mind and the body and how it affects our overall Wellbeing. Wellbeing is not limited to our physical health, but includes our emotional, social, financial, career and relationship wellness. As a Wellbeing Partner, Jennifer will work with you to become aware of how these different areas are influencing your energy, fulfillment, success and happiness.

Aug 27 StageDoor Theatre presents ESCANABA IN DA MOONLIGHT

Escanaba in Da Moonlight Written by Jeff Daniels Directed by Buz Gibson Featuring our Adult Company A Hilarious Quest to Bag a Buck! When the Soady clan reunites for opening day of deer season at the family's Upper Peninsula camp, Reuben Soady brings with him the infamous reputation of being the oldest Soady in the history of the Soadys never to bag a buck. To change his luck, Reuben tries to convince his father and brother to change some of the time-honored rituals of their annual hunting pilgrimage, but this seems to set off a series of uncanny incidents involving UFOs, cards, backwoods whiskey, flatulence, and possession by native spirits. Escanaba in da Moonlight is a comic homage to hunting in upstate Michigan and spins a hilarious tale of humor and heart as Reuben goes to any and all lengths to remove himself from the wrong end of the family record book. Rated PG Escanaba in Da Moonlight is presented through special arrangement from Dramatists Play Service.

Aug 28 Ashtanga Yoga with Becky

Ashtanga Vinyasa Yoga with Becky Potter
Every Tuesday and Friday Morning!
9:30-10:45am

This is an invigorating, athletic practice that is steeped in tradition. No previous yoga experience is required. The sun salutation is at the heart of the practice, tying breath to movement and bringing vitality and mobility to every part of the body. Interwoven with the sun salutation, we explore a set sequence of poses that we return to in each class.

From simple forward folds to complex arm balances and inversions, the goal in the practice is to create alignment in the body that allows comfort and ease. Along the way, students will have opportunities to sweat, to laugh, to stretch, to strengthen, to explore their limits, and to expand their boundaries.

Becky has studied and practiced many styles of yoga over the past decade. In the Ashtanga Vinyasa style, Becky has found her yoga home. She is honored to share the teachings of Ashtanga with students at Taspens. When she is not teaching yoga, Becky is likely to be hanging out with her kids, gardening, cooking, or reading.

Fees/Admission: Donation Based Yoga? At Taspens we believe that yoga is for EVERYONE! Yogic tradition dictates that a student should never have to pay to be instructed BUT the student should never ask to be instructed without first offering a gift. In following with this tradition, we want to offer donation-based classes and packages at our studio. The donations fund our studio and instructors. We have listed a suggested price for our classes/packages. We hope that you will offer what feels right for you! You are always free to give more if you have it to spare, or less if you are unable. We don't want to refuse anyone because they are struggling with abundance. Let Karma be your guide. We suggest a love donation of $12/class or our great package rates. Don't have a lot of cash flow and still desire to practice...you can also give time, services or energy. Namaste. Trail Building at Pennsylvania Mountain Natural Area

Volunteer with MALT to build a trail!

MALT is partnering with the Volunteers for Outdoor Colorado (VOC) and other organizations to design and build a trail at the Pennsylvania Mountain Natural Area this summer. Over a two-day weekend, August 29th and 30th, volunteers will be working on constructing a one mile loop trail on MALT's property. Join us for this exciting project! Please sign up here, <http://www.voc.org/project/mike-obrien-memorial-project-pennsylvania-mountain-trail-construction>

More information:

The Pennsylvania Mountain Natural Area is located near Alma in Park County, sitting just northwest of Fairplay. Encompassing 500 acres of land and with the 13,000-ft. Pennsylvania Mountain as the highest point, sights in the area include ancient bristlecone pines, stunning wildflowers, and alpine researchers in the field. In 2014, with the generous support of the community, Mountain Area Land Trust (MALT) purchased 92 critical acres as part of a multiphase project. This effort ensures the continuing ongoing scientific research conducted by more than a hundred scientists for over 37 years - one of the longest term alpine research sites in the country. The trail will be constructed on MALT's property. <http://www.savetheland.org/pennsylvania-mtn>

UNFOLDING THE HEART ~ A YOGA WORKSHOP

Unfolding the Heart ~ A Yoga Workshop

Backbend, Forward Bend & Restore While Learning the Anatomy of the Heart

Saturday, Aug. 29th // 10:00am - 12:00 pm // Taught by Mary-L. Bevington

Suggested Donation $22

Learn about the heart ~ integral organ, muscle, gland ~ in all its mystery, resiliency, constant beat and flow.

Expect yoga postures & little lessons along the way.

Contact info@taspens.com to register

Mary-Laurence 'Mary' Bevington, MFA, started teaching Hatha yoga in 1992. She has a traditional and somatic anatomy background informed primarily by the work of Bonnie Bainbridge Cohen, and the Ayurvedic system. While in a somatic anatomy intensive at her alma mater, Naropa University, Mary learned that the heart is one long tube that spirals in on itself as it develops. This sparked Mary's period of Heart Research and the development of the 'Unfolding the Heart' yoga workshop based on her findings. In her spare time, Mary makes art, facilitates personal development, and fine tunes her intuition.. Please visit her at www.marybevington.com

Free Workshop for Ethical Wills

Free Workshop for Ethical Wills

An ethical will, sometimes called an ethical legacy, is a document written to preserve and pass along key wisdom, life lessons and personal meaning. Usually, the person who writes an ethical will is striving to provide loved ones with a snapshot of what has been important in their life. An ethical will is not a legally binding document and is not intended as a way to distribute property or money. However, ethical wills are becoming increasingly important as the population ages and more individuals are becoming pro-active about the end stages of their life. Excellent examples will also be presented.

Late Summer and Early Fall Birds

Beginning this month, and for the next three monthly bird trips, we'll distinguish year-round residents from seasonal migrants. Join our naturalist to learn techniques for identifying, describing, and remembering each bird you see. You will also learn facts about different birds and have your many bird questions answered. Program Details Adults This program will be 2 -3 hours long with an option to stay after for a brown bag lunch (not provided). The hike will take place on the Owl's Perch and Lodgepole Loop trails. Please wear hiking boots or good, comfortable walking shoes. Dress for the weather. Bring with you binoculars, a bird guide (if you have one), snacks and water as needed. You can also bring a lunch if you would like to stay after the program to discuss the results of the day. Dress for the weather and bring sunscreen and a hat. You will meet the naturalist at the Main trailhead/parking lot of Meyer Ranch Park. The parking lot is on the south side of Hwy 285. Let's play and learn outside! Our programs go rain, snow, or shine! So, dress accordingly. We will cancel the program if the weather is hazardous or unsafe. If a program is canceled we will send an e-mail and/or call each registered participant. You can also check the event listing. We usually make the call to cancel within 24 hours of the program Additional Information <http://bit.ly/LSEFbirds> Registration for this program is available one month before the date of the program. If you are registering during this time, but space is no longer available, please call Lookout Mountain Nature Center at 720-497-7600 to be placed on a waiting list. Already registered and need to cancel? Have questions about the program? Please give us a call at 720-497-7600 or e-mail lmnc@jeffco.us to let us know! Please include the program title. Office hours are 9:00 am to 4:00 pm Tuesday-Sunday, inquiries made after 4 pm may not be answered until the following day. LMNC is closed on Mondays.
