Hidden Links: Exploring Jewish Identity ? The Work of Yona Verwer and Cynthia Beth Rubin

Artists and collaborators, Cynthia Beth Rubin and Yona Verwer are exhibiting works created together and separately, demonstrating how very different paths led each artist to an exploration of Jewish history and heritage that naturally culminated in a collaborative works. Working together as interpreters of history and heritage as they, photograph, document, represent, and weave together the stories of the past and the present.

Their newest collaborative work incorporates the innovative use of Augmented Reality. For more information, go to: <http://history-heritage-lowereastside.blogspot.com>

Tails of the Painted Cats - exhibit

"TAILS OF THE PAINTED CATS" ON DISPLAY AT MAIN STREET GALLERY IN EVERGREEN

Opening Reception

Friday, July 31

5-8 p.m.

Come to Evergreen for a purr-r-r-fect day in the cool mountain air!

Main Street Gallery in Evergreen, has the pleasure of displaying the Cat Care Society's "Tails of the Painted Cats 2015" featuring 23 one-of-a-kind fiberglass cats, expertly painted by accomplished local artists.

As in past years, all but one cat will be available for auction – both online and at the gala – with a special, featured cat that can be purchased by raffle only. This year's raffle cat, Dale Cat-Huly, was created by artist Carla Pawlewicz. To view all the 2015 painted cats and participate in advance bidding, visit: bidonacat.blogspot.com

The Cat Care Society (CCS) annual benefit, Tails of the Painted Cats (TOPC), returns for its fifth consecutive year to raise funds for the shelter's homeless cats and community outreach programs. Auction of the painted cats occurs at the Gala Dinner & Auction on October 10, 2015, at Pinehurst Country Club. CBS4 Weather Anchor, Ed Greene, returns this year as Master of Ceremonies, joined by former-Mayor of Cherry Hills Village, Doug Tisdale, as auctioneer. Renowned Colorado plein-air and studio landscape artist, Cheryl St. John, served as jurist for this year's "Tails of the Painted Cats."

The cats will be on Display from July 31 - Aug 26, 2015

Ashtanga Vinyasa Yoga with Becky Potter

Ashtanga Vinyasa Yoga with Becky Potter

Every Thursday

12:00-1:15pm

This is an invigorating, athletic practice that is steeped in tradition. No previous yoga experience is required. The sun salutation is at the heart of the practice, tying breath to movement and bringing vitality and mobility to every part of the body. Interwoven with the sun salutation, we explore a set sequence of poses that we return to in each class. From simple forward folds to complex arm balances and inversions, the goal in the practice is to create alignment in the body that allows comfort and ease. Along the way, students will have opportunities to sweat, to laugh, to stretch, to strengthen, to explore their limits, and to expand their boundaries.

Becky has studied and practiced many styles of yoga over the past decade. In the Ashtanga Vinyasa style, Becky has found her yoga home. She is honored to share the teachings of Ashtanga with students at Taspen's. When she is not teaching yoga, Becky is likely to be hanging out with her kids, gardening, cooking, or reading.

Backyard Astronomy: Perseid Meteor Shower

The Perseid Meteor Shower is one of the best meteor showers of the year. Join us for an evening under the stars and see how many you can count before the night is done. Listen to a short lecture on various different topics about the moon and look at objects in the night sky through binoculars and telescopes. Program Details: All ages/Family Please dress to be outside, at night, and standing still while looking at the stars. Dress in warm layers, coats, sweaters, and hats as needed. Please bring a flashlight preferably with a red filter or bulb. Feel free to bring your own binoculars and/or telescope (not required). We also recommend chairs or blankets to sit on, snacks, water, hot chocolate, etc. You will meet the naturalist in the main parking lot of Hildebrand Ranch Park at the kiosk. This program will involve little to no hiking. Please leave pets at home. Let's play and learn outside! Our programs go rain, snow, or shine! So, dress accordingly. Cloudy skies are not always a reason for us to cancel. Our astronomy programs often have activities other than telescope viewing and the weather changes quickly in Colorado! We will cancel the program if the weather is hazardous or unsafe. If a program is canceled we will send an e-mail and/or call each registered participant. You can also check the event listing. We usually make the call to cancel within 24 hours of the program Additional Information <http://bit.ly/BackyardAstronomyPerseids> Registration for this program is available one month before the date of the program. Aug 15 Boogie at the Barn

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 3, 2015

"BOOGIE AT THE BARN!"

Featuring The Trubelos

What: Boogie at the Barn

When: Saturday, August 15th from 5:30 pm to 10:00pm

Where: Alderfer Barn at Alderfer/Sisters Park

The Boogie series continues with a terrific lineup of quality bands and danceable music. The old barn at Alderfer Ranch will come to life for a great night of live music, community and dancing. This is the second of three Boogie's this year. For more info go to www.BoogieattheBarn.com.

The night will commence at 5:30pm with music from "Rough Mix", a mix of local Evergreen musicians led by John Erlandson with heartfelt originals and popular covers. The Trubelos will headline the event playing from 7:30pm-10:00pm with their mix of country/rock/blues. Lauded for the diversity of the band, a spirited chemistry, quality songwriting and great musicianship, this very poplar group will bring it home at the Alderfer Barn.

Libations will be available for purchase (beer and wine) and two local vendor food trucks will be in attendance, Bistro Colorado and Barefoot BBQ. Tickets are $10 in advance and $10 at the door.

The evening is produced by John & Pandora Erlandson, known as PandoraJohnProductions, with help from a group of wonderful volunteers, affectionately called the "Boogie Brain Trust". Proceeds from the event benefit EPRD and the Alderfer Ranch. Many volunteers will be on hand for the evening.

"Boogie at the Barn" is sponsored by Tom Carby Insurance, Marmalade's, Green Merchant, Colorado Serenity, Adams Plumbing and Heating, Intero Real Estate, Chow Down, Mark and Laurie Teter, Warren and Betsy Rose and EPRD.

Yoga-Align & Flow with Laurie Love

Align and Flow Yoga

A slow-medium paced flow class with longer holds focusing on alignment principles to get deeper into mind-body connection. This class is inspired by various elements of Power, Vinyasa, Forrest, Tantra, Anusara, and Sridaiva. Inversions, partner poses, chanting, and pranayama will also be explored. This class is perfect for those who like to have fun while practicing, and may make you sweat! ;)

About Laurie:

Laurie began practicing yoga in 2006, and in November, 2010 received her 200 hour yoga certification from Karma Yoga Center in Denver, Colorado. Laurie found yoga while on a quest for attaining optimal health, and fell in love at first savasana. She looks at yoga as a holistic health method practiced to heal and balance the mind, body, and spirit. Creating a unique yogic journey in every class, her inspiration is derived primarily from her many teachers, chakra healing, astrology, yoga philosophy, and of course her students. Laurie teaches an alignment-based vinyasa practice, incorporating pranayama (breath work), meditation, chanting, and challenging asanas sometimes including core work, inversions, and partner poses. Her passion is inspiring students to find their edge, explore outside of their comfort zone, and take their practice off their mats and into the world!

Laurie has continued her education throughout the years with a plethora of alignment, inversion, meditation, anatomy, adjustment and other various yoga workshops. Additionally, she has a solid personal practice she's held for nine years. Her inspiration is derived from a combination of many yogic traditions including Tantra, Forrest, Anusara, Sridaiva, and Power. Some of the teachers who inspire and motivate her are Cheryl Deer, Ian Maxwell, Crystal Hinton, Carrie Varela, Stacey Swerer, Matthew Dolezal, Mike Matsumara, Shiva Rea, John Friend, and many more.

Private Lessons:

Laurie is also available for private lessons and classes. Private yoga lessons are highly recommended for beginning yoga students who would like consultation and guidance on their practice and to build confidence for practicing yoga in a group setting; anyone who desires to relieve and heal injury or chronic pain; or yoga practitioners who would like to take their practice to the next level. All private lessons are geared directly towards fulfilling students' needs and goals, and students will be provided with invaluable practical information on how to heal and balance the body, mind, and spirit through physical movement, breath work, and meditation. Please feel free to contact Laurie with any questions regarding your yoga goals.

Fees/Admission: Donation Based Yoga? At Taspens we believe that yoga is for EVERYONE! Yogic tradition dictates that a student should never have to pay to be instructed BUT the student should never ask to be instructed without first offering a gift. In following with this tradition, we want to offer donation-based classes and packages at our studio. The donations fund our studio and instructors. We have listed a suggested price for our classes/packages. We hope that you will offer what feels right for you! You are always free to give more if you have it to spare, or less if you are unable. We don't want to refuse anyone because they are struggling with abundance. Let Karma be your guide. We suggest a love donation of $12/class or our great package rates. Don't have a lot of cash flow and still desire to practice...you can also give time, services or energy.
